

Why join Walking With Purpose?

It truly helped me love the Word more deeply. I have grown in my faith and have felt such peace. I feel more authentic.

I feel closer to Christ now than any other time in my life.

I love hearing other women's stories of faith, worry, and their love for our Savior.

I drew closer to God, met wonderful women, and opened the door of my heart a little wider for the Lord to enter.

I love the free child care!

It helped me remember that ultimately, my goal is to reach heaven, which is a journey that presents us every day with a fresh opportunity to grow closer to God.

I loved having a variety of ages in each group.

It made me more mindful that God is not just for Sundays, but every day.

Being new to the area, I felt alone during my husband's deployment. WWP really helped me meet new friends and lean on the Lord.

WWP allowed me to find peace in my faith during a difficult time.

It helped me become a good example to my family.

It helped me grow in my faith, reignite a love for the Church, initiate a transformation in my heart, and become part of the Church community.

It has challenged me to put God in the center of my life.

It has truly changed my life. I am calmer, grateful, and more at peace than I've ever been.

This was my first Bible study. It enriched and motivated me.

I loved being around women who are flawed, funny, faithful.

It helped me to appreciate the Bible and its application to my life.

I pray now. That's new for me.

Still not sure?

That's OK. We've been in your shoes. Here's what we want you to know...

Every step we make to grow closer to God is valuable.

It's fun and worth the commitment of your time.

None of us are perfect. We are all learning to grow closer to God.

Try it! It's welcoming and very relevant to everyday life.

Go for it! I was hesitant as well, but finally decided to give it a try. Very glad I did!

I'm quiet and thought a Bible study would be out of my comfort zone. If I can do it, so can you!

Don't worry about any lack of experience in Bible study or if you can't make it every week. You'll still enjoy it.

Think you're too busy? Watch how God makes time for you to be able to fit this in your week.

WWP meets you where you are and walks with you as you progress on your spiritual journey.

Don't let the time commitment intimidate you. You will find yourself longing for the weekly meeting.

I didn't even realize I had a need until this appeared, and it has fulfilled me in a way that I have never felt before.

I lacked confidence in my faith. By the end, I grew so much. So could you!

I gently encourage you to try a session or two.

WWP is an incredible group of women where you can feel free to be yourself.

There is a place for everyone, regardless of where you are on your spiritual journey.

Every session you feel more and more comfortable sharing with others.

Try it for a night! You'll be hooked!
